Revise the Information enrichment Sheet

3. Write 'true' or 'false' for each of the following statements:

- a. Allah is our Creator. True
- b. We can see Allah but Allah cannot see us. False
- c. Allah's message was given to us by Hazrat Muhammad (S.A.W).
True

4. Make a list of three things that you will do to please Allah.

- a. _____
- b. _____
- c. _____

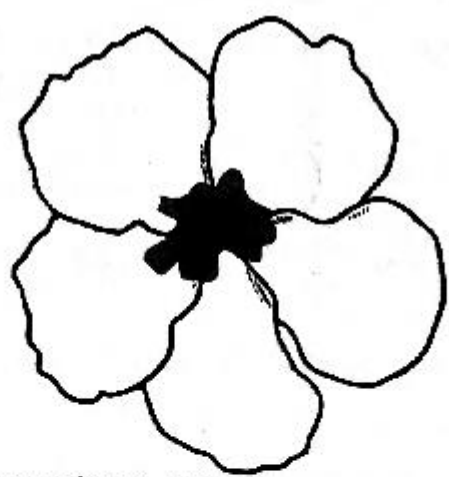

5. What is the meaning of the Arabic name of Allah 'Al-Khalique'?
Why do you think Allah is called so?

We believe in Allah and in His message to humankind. The message was to believe in One Allah and to be good human beings. Allah's message was given to us by Hazrat Muhammad (Sallallahu 'Alayhi Wa Sallam). The name of our beloved Prophet should always be followed by the prayer "Sallallahu 'Alayhi Wa Sallam" (S.A.W) which means 'May Allah honor him and grant him peace'.

EXERCISES

- 1. In each of the flower petals drawn below, write down somethings in your life for which you should be grateful to Allah.

- 2. Draw lines to match each of the Arabic names of Allah with their correct English meaning.

Arabic names of Allah	English meaning
Al-Khalique	The One and Only
Al-Ahad	The most Merciful
Ar-Rahim	One who can always see us
Al-Basir	The most Gracious
Ar-Rahman	The Creator

Chapter One: ALLAH AND HIS CREATIONS

Unit One: Allah the Almighty

5 (Allah is our Creator. He created us and all the other people in this world. He made the sun, the moon, the stars and everything else in the world. He is the Maker of everything. That is why, He is also known as 'Al - Khalique'.)

Allah is Most Gracious (Ar-Rahman) and Most Merciful (Ar-Rahim). Allah is the One and Only (Al-Ahad). He has no family.

No one made Allah. He was always there and will always be there (Al-Baqi).

Allah is everywhere. He is in all places at all times. We cannot see Allah but Allah can always see us (Al-Basir). He sees and knows everything (Al-Latif).
